Taking the Heat

with Special Guest
Richard Sarver

Join us for an engaging evening with Richard Sarver, author of "Taking the Heat" and "The Development of the Continuous Casting of Steel in the United States: A Look at the Early Days". Sarver has 32 years of experience-20 of which were at a small Virginia steel plant, Roanoke Steel (now a division of Steel Dynamics).

Sarver will share stories and pictures of the challenges laborers faced and their involvement in bringing what was a "revolutionary process" to the American steel industry.
