Comfortable and Safe Networking

Meaningful engagement doesn’t have to be complicated. Networking and connecting with peers face-to-face is a key objective of attending in-person events. Delivering environments which facilitate both ad-hoc and in-depth networking is important in accommodating attendee needs and will allow attendees to connect with peers effectively, comfortably, and safely.

To help you feel confident as you begin to plan your in-person and hybrid events, we have developed Freeman SafeConnect. This program includes standards, protocols, and service offerings that reflect our values and commitment to safety and wellbeing — for our people, our customers, and our attendees.

Top Design Tips for Tradeshow Booths.

1. Spin Around. Swivel chairs in small spaces maximize functionality and allow you to engage with those all around!

2. Get Connected. Communal tables help facilitate networking opportunities and build connections.

3. Creature Comforts. Design a comfortable “living room” space with soft lounge seating to relax clients and encourage conversation.

4. Keep it Green. Don’t forget the greenery to warm up your booth environment by bringing nature indoors.

5. Demo Down. Square or circular ottomans are a great way to design small theaters for quick demonstrations.

6. Level the field! Low and casual seating makes clients more comfortable and open to learning.

7. Stay Social. Stylize furnishings to create shareable moments worthy of Instagram.

8. Gather Round! Ottomans styled around a side table create an informal campfire setting for small group discussions.

9. Charge it! Powered tables and seating encourages clients to linger in the booth and recharge.

10. Provide a Pop! Colorful furnishings attract attention and help reinforce brand themes.

Health & Safety are the top priorities as we consider new designs and ways to connect. When those are clearly emphasized on the show floor, attendees will feel more confident re-engaging.

Together, let’s imagine what this new experience will look like - based on both what is possible and realistic. Some recommendations may be new to you. Some, not. To get you started, our top five recommendations include:

1. Strategize your audience approach
2. Re-imagine your booth design.
3. Evaluate a hybrid booth approach
4. Create safe networking opportunities during the show
5. Stay connected to your audience post-show

In all cases, we’ve put considerable thought into them.
